

SOCIETY NEWS and GOSSIP

RETURNING TO WASHINGTON

Miss Helen Cannon, daughter of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who has been abroad for several weeks, sailed Friday from Cherbourg for New York, accompanied by a party of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Green, of Jersey City; Mrs. Otto Young, Mrs. Hobart and Miss Katherine Hartigan, of Chicago.

September 20, and take up their residence in the Highlands.

Lieut. G. C. Rockwell, U. S. A., on duty at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., who is spending some time at the Ebbitt House, this city, will leave here Monday.

Lieut. Commander George V. Marvell, U. S. N., commanding the United States steamship Eagle, who is on leave, spent several days in Washington last week.

Lieut. Francis Ruggles, U. S. A., and Mrs. Ruggles, who recently have returned from Venezuela, have reached this city, coming from Fort Ethan Allen. Lieutenant Ruggles has been assigned as military attaché to the American legation at Santiago, Chile, and will join his station in November.

Lieut. R. O. Underwood, U. S. M. C., who is on leave, spent last week in Washington.

Lieut. Joseph L. Topham, U. S. A., who passed through Washington last week en route to Sea Girt for the shooting tournament, was the guest of Lieut. J. R. Davis, at Fort du Pont, Del., before taking up his duties at Sea Girt.

Mrs. Frances Mann Hall, principal of the Hall-Noyes School, has returned from a delightful summer spent in the British Isles. Mrs. Hall spent a great portion of her time making a study of the cathedral architecture and Roman ruins in Great Britain. She had an experience, unusual for an American, of joining the Royal Archeological Society on its annual tour, by personal invitation of its president, Sir Henry Haworth.

Lieutenant Allan Rutherford, U. S. A., on leave from Havana, Cuba, spent several days in Washington last week en route to Galthersburg, Md.

Lieutenant John C. Fremont, Jr., U. S. N., who is on leave, spent Wednesday and Thursday here, a guest at the Army and Navy Club.

Lieutenant F. O. Whitlock, U. S. A., who spent several days in Washington last week, is now at Sea Girt, N. J.

Captain James N. Pickering, who is on leave from his station at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., is spending several weeks in Washington at 1214 Eleventh street.

Mrs. Charles A. McCarthy and children, of 408 Seward Square, Capitol Hill, have gone to Oakland, Cal., from Prescott, Ontario, for a stay of several months.

Mrs. John R. Williams, who has been spending the summer at Fort du Pont with Colonel Williams, is now in New York. She went up two weeks ago to bid her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Leiter, bon voyage to Europe, and to await the return of her younger daughter, Miss Dorothy Williams, who has been traveling abroad all summer.

Colonel Williams and little Miss Frances Williams have as their guest at Fort du Pont Miss Marie Cook, of Washington.

Mrs. William Corcoran Lill, who is spending the summer at Narragansett Pier, R. I., entertained at bridge Monday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Sharpe, wife of Brig. Gen. Henry G. Sharpe, U. S. A. After the bridge there was a tea, to which men were bidden. Among the extra guests were Rear Admiral Silas W. Terry, U. S. N., retired, Mrs. Terry, and Miss Terry.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson and family, of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., who spent last week in Chicago, will arrive in Washington within a day or so to join Captain Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Brown, of Capitol Hill, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cathcart, of Jersey City.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hopwell are guests at the Chetwood Hotel, Atlantic City, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Engel entertained the Woodbridge Pleasure Club Friday evening in their home on Rhode Island avenue. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Husted, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lore, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Vieth, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McDowell, and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Wheeler. The evening was spent in music, dancing, and progressive euchre. Mr. and Mrs. McDowell will entertain the club Friday evening, September 18.

Mrs. E. R. Dawson entertained at luncheon in honor of Miss Edythe Line-baugh, of Hagerstown, Md., Wednesday. The table was prettily decorated with red roses and red-shaded candles.

Among the guests were Miss Maud Emig, Miss Lora Linebaugh, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Clawson, Dr. Arnold, and Mr. Keller, of Baltimore. Miss Edythe Linebaugh returned to her home in Hagerstown yesterday.

Mrs. A. McMullen has returned to her home from Richmond, her former home, where she spent the last six weeks.

Miss Katherine M. Richmond left the city yesterday with a party of friends for Baltimore, where they will take the steamer for Northern points. Before returning Miss Richmond will be the guest of friends in Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

The regular monthly dances given by the Engineer Corps at the post gymnasium, Washington Barracks, will be resumed this year, the first of the season being held September 22.

Earle Edwards entertained a large gathering of friends in his parents' home, in New York avenue, Friday evening, the occasion being in celebration of his twentieth birthday. The evening was spent in music and dancing. A buffet supper was served during the evening, the table being beautifully decorated with ferns, lilies and roses.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Prof. and Mrs. Wyndham, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert, Mrs. Robertson, Miss Robertson, Miss Colwell, Miss Wonder, James Russell, Fred Cook, Louis Dreifuss, Mr. Baiden and Mr. Neil.

Mrs. Rochon and Miss Rochon, of Washington, are guests at the Hotel Chalmers, Atlantic City.

Enmett L. Adams, who has been the guest of relatives and friends in Portsmouth, Richmond, has returned to his home in this city.

Miss Mae Briggs is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Walker, in her home in Clabornes avenue, Brambleton, Va.

Mrs. Frank B. Curtis and Miss Minnie B. Curtis entertained in honor of their house guest, Miss Nanette Stine, of Los Angeles, Cal., Thursday evening, in their home in B street. Miss Urs-

Yorks, Miss Curtis, and T. W. Vene-mann rendered several excellent vocal solos, and Miss Quida Wheelock several piano solos.

Among the guests were Miss Ursu Yorks, Miss Quida Wheelock, Miss Gertrude Trow, Miss M. L. T. Res, Miss M. V. Ellis, Arthur Moore, Clarence F. Newton, H. S. Sackett, T. W. Vene-mann, George Roberts, and Rexford L. Holmes.

Mrs. Milligan and Mrs. Belle Wel-siger, of Augusta, Ga., are spending the month of September in Wash-ington.

William H. Coneby left Washington today for New York, where he will spend several days.

Miss Mabella Brunner was hostess at a luncheon, Tuesday, in her home in Broad street, Falls Church, Va., com-plimentary to her house guest, Miss Ethel Maxwell, of Rockford, S. C. Among the guests were Miss Virginia Traylor, of Petersburg, Va.; Miss Chas-lesman, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Ethel Maxwell, Miss Eva Birch, Mrs. Lester Brunner, and Miss Brunner, of Falls Church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Apperson and family, of Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Broadus, and Miss Broadus, of Passaic, N. J.; Miss Rosalie Broadus, and Miss Reubie Broadus, of Alexan-dria, Va., were the guests of Thomas A. Broadus, in his home, Waycroft Cot-tage, Falls Church, Va., last week.

Miss Frances Stewart entertained a number of her friends Tuesday evening in her home in Ballston, Va., in cele-bration of her birthday. The evening was spent in games and music. A buffet supper was served during the evening.

Among her guests were Miss Ethel Talman, Miss Amy Hodgkins, Miss Katherine Stewart, Miss Margaret Stewart, Miss Marion Smith, Miss Jen-nie Lewis, Miss Mary Marcey, Miss Ruth Marcey, Miss Ruth Golden, Miss Janie Birch, Miss Grace Wells, Miss Eva Yeatman, Miss Lula Yeatman, Miss Louise Collier, Miss Elsie Collier, Miss May Pearson, Archie Wells, Dur-bin Hodgkins, Lewis Burrows, Irwin Speer, Guy Speer, Norman Pearson, Ray Pearson, Claude Thomas, Edward McCoy, John Stewart, Ben Thompson, Robert Newton, Len Fisher, Mr. Sulli-van, Mr. Hartly, and Mr. Brooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcy M. Mitchell and Mrs. Clara V. Moore, who spent the month of August at the Piney Point Hotel, Piney Point, Md., have returned to their home on Eighth street. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Bratton and Miss Catherine Bratton, of Jersey City, N. J., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell at Piney Point, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Kimmel were hosts at dinner Tuesday evening com-plimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cawson and their guest, Miss Edythe Linebaugh, of Hagerstown, Md.

Fred C. Linger, of this city, is spend-ing several weeks at the Norman House, Ocean Grove, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Passmore are guests at the Aberdeen Hotel, Asbury Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cawson en-tertained a card party in their home on Capitol Hill Thursday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Kimmel, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dawson, Miss Edythe Linebaugh, of Hagerstown, Md.; Miss Ray Kimmel, Miss Maud Emig, Miss Annie Peters, Harry Peters, Frank Kimmel, Elmer Schroth, and Raymond Boetish.

The first ladies' prize was won by Miss Ray Kimmel, the second prize by Miss Annie Peters, and the booby by Miss Linebaugh.

Harry Peters won the first gentle-man's prize, and Elmer Schroth the booby.

A delightful supper was served during the evening, and of the guests was given attractive corsage bouquets and boutonnières.

Mrs. C. E. West, of this city, is spend-ing some time at the New England Hot-el, Atlantic City, N. J.

Claude B. Farr, 1417 Q street, has re-turned to his home from Fairfax county, Va., where he was the guest of his uncle, J. D. Farr.

Mrs. Philip J. Tracey and Miss Esther Totten have returned to their home from Colonial Beach, where they spent the last two weeks.

Mrs. B. Klawans has returned to her home in H street, after spending several weeks with relatives in Baltimore and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Benjamin Spitzer, of New Or-leans, La., is the guest of her sisters, Miss Sarah Hirsch and Miss Ida Hirsch, of W street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Lesser of Augusta, Ga., who spent the past three months traveling in Europe, arrived in Boston on Thursday, and spent a short time here with Mrs. Silver, of New Hamp-shire avenue, before returning home.

Sigmund Silberberg, of New York city, after spending several weeks at At-lantic City, made an automobile tour to Washington to visit his parents.

Mrs. Ella S. Levy, after spending several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strauss, of U street, has re-turned to Indianapolis, accompanied by her brother, George Strauss, who will spend several weeks in the West.

David Posner, of New York city, is spending the week-end, here, with friends.

Miss Helene Stern, of the Cliffborne, entertained on Tuesday evening at her home, in honor of her house guest, her cousin, Miss Leona Stern, of Norfolk, Va. The house was beautifully decorated in the palms. The first part of the evening was devoted to music and games, and later a delightful buffet supper was served. The guests were Miss Leona Stern, of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Selma Ullman, of Fredericksburg, Va.; Miss Pauline Kronheim, Miss Rena Sanger, Miss Sarah Keonigs-berger, Philip M. Brown, Ivan Herman, Harold Strauss, Milford Stern, Sylvan Grosner, Alvan Hoffa, Earl Silverman and Harold Lichtenstein.

Mrs. Lee Baumgarten and daughter, Miss Dorothy Baumgarten, have re-turned to their home in Eighteenth street, after spending several weeks at Asbury Park, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Beckman and sons have returned from Mountain Lake Park, where they spent the summer.

Miss Selma Ullman, of Fredericks-burg, Va., is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. Rheine, of N street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Dodge and son have returned from a delightful trip to At-lantic City.

Mrs. A. Herman and daughter, Lor-raine, of Calvert street, who spent the summer traveling in Europe, are ex-pected to arrive in New York tomor-row, and will return to their home here the latter part of next week.

Lawrence D. Engel has spent the past few days in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Engel, of Twenty-first street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry King, who have been with their family in Atlantic City, have left for New York city, while Miss Hortense King, Milton King, and Syl-van King returned to Washington.

Samuel Richards and Herman Shrott are spending the week-end in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weyl and son, Max, of Brightwood, have gone on a trip to Old Point Comfort and neigh-boring points of interest.

Herbert Rich left town yesterday to make an extended Northern trip. He will visit Thousand Islands, New York and Canada.

Samuel Rosenthal and son, Calvert, are making an extended automobile trip.

Miss Edna M. Weyl, who has spent the past fortnight in Atlantic City, has

Diplomatic

The Austrian Ambassador and Baron-ess Hengelmueller were the honor guests at a luncheon given Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Keoch, in their place, The Moorings, Bar Harbor.

Among the other guests were Count Torok, Baron Haymerle, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Keith, Miss Townsend, Miss Lord, Mrs. Reginald de Koven, Mrs. L. Putnam, Charles Fry and Dyer Shubard.

Major Tanaka, military attaché of the Japanese embassy, was the honor guest of Colonel and Mrs. Getty, of Jefferson Barracks, Mo., at luncheon Friday. Later the courtesies of the Gun Club on Jefferson Barracks were extended to Major Tanaka, who managed to break three clay pigeons out of a possible twenty-five.

Personals

Capt. and Mrs. Powell Clayton, Jr., have arrived in New York from Cuba, for a visit to relatives and friends in the North.

Mrs. Clayton, who was formerly a Miss Langhorne, a cousin of Mrs. Wal-dorf Astor, has made many friends in Cuba. Captain Clayton is a son of Gen-eral Clayton, formerly American am-bassador to Mexico, and is a brother of the Baroness Moncheur, wife of the Belgian minister and Mrs. Arthur Grant Duff, wife of the British minister to Cuba.

Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, who is spend-ing the summer abroad, and will not return to her winter home in Connecti-cut avenue until some time in Novem-ber or December, recently left the Hot-el Ritz, in Paris, after a stay of sev-eral weeks, for Biarritz.

Mrs. Corbin, wife of Gen. Henry C. Corbin, U. S. A., will return to her Chevy Chase home, Highwood, Tues-day, from Maine, where she has been visiting her step-daughter, Mrs. Par-sons. The General, who has been in Ohio for the last few weeks, will join her here later.

Dulany Hunter, the American consul at Nice, is spending several weeks in Washington, on his leave of absence from his post.

Senator Culberson returned to Wash-ington last night from New York and joined Mrs. Culberson, who preceded him here a few days ago from Deer Park, where the family spent the sum-mer.

Accompanied by Mrs. Culberson's sister, Mrs. Mary Schleuter, and little Miss Mary Culberson, Senator and Mrs. Culberson will leave about the middle of September for a few weeks at Atlantic City.

The Librarian of Congress, Herbert Putnam, is expected to return to Wash-ington Tuesday from the various North-ern resorts, where he has been spend-ing the summer.

Miss Ellen Barry, daughter of Gen. Thomas Barry, acting governor of Cuba, during the absence of the provin-cial governor, Charles E. Magoon, ar-rived in New York about a fortnight ago from Cuba for a brief visit in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Chase have re-turned to their apartment in the Con-necticut from their summer place in Ohio.

Mr. Justice McKenna and Mrs. Mc-Kenna, who have been spending the summer at Narragansett Pier and New York, with their daughters, will return to Washington Monday.

Rear Admiral E. C. Pendleton, U. S. N.; Major R. E. Stevens, U. S. A.; Lieut. D. E. Thelen, U. S. N.; and Mrs. Brooks, and Rear Admiral and Mrs. John McGowan, U. S. N., spent last week at the Richmond Hotel.

Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. W. A. Nichols, of Fort Leavenworth, enter-tained at dinner, Monday evening, com-plimentary to Secretary of War Wright and Major General and Mrs. Bell. The other guests included Brigadier General Funston, Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Syn-der, and Major and Mrs. Slavens.

A paper chase of hare and hounds, held last week at Bar Harbor, was a novelty. The trail was laid by Miss Hebe Wright and Harold Wilcox, who started in a carriage half an hour ahead of the hounds and laid a tantal-izing trail of confetti over a very round-about route, finally ending at Otter Cliffs on the Ocean Drive.

The course covered a distance of about ten miles and was a devious one. The first couples to arrive were Miss Grace Moore and Frederick Dawson, and Miss Trotter and Merline Haro.

Among the Washingtonians who rode were Count Torok and Prince Windisch-Graetz, of the Austro-Hungarian Em-bassy.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wyle, of the Ful-ton, leave Washington next week for New York, where they will spend several days.

Rear Admiral R. R. Ingersoll, U. S. N., and Mrs. Ingersoll, who have been the guests of friends in Laporte, Ind., will return to Washington about Sep-